

Program CEP 2022

Thursday 17th of November

10.00-11.00	Coffee & Registration
11.00-12.45	Auditorium G Theoretical and Empirical Methods
11.00-11.10	Opening of the conference
11.10-11.45	Keynote - Cameron Brick' The intersections of theory and method when investigating impactful pro-environmental behaviour.
11.45-12.05	Kimberly Doell The Manylabs Climate Project: Insights about designing and deploying massive collaborations.
12.05-12.25	Melissa Piatkowski Mapping the context: The use of GIS in healthcare design.
12.25-13.00	Coffee Break & Social Mingling
13.00-14.00	Auditorium G Sustainability
13.00-13.20	Ting Liu Micro-macro multilevel analysis of lifestyle and carbonemissions in UK multiple occupancy households.
13.20-13.40	Judith-Maria Maruschke Profiles of the understanding of the agriculturally shaped environment in Western Pomerania, Germany.

13.40-14.00	Nienke Böhm Exploring people's associations with animal sourced food: land versus sea.
14.00-15.00	Late Lunch Break - Drotten
15.00-15.55	Auditorium G Environmentally Friendly
15.00-15.35	Keynote - Jana Katharina Köhler 'Leaving on a Night Train' - The future of conferences and collaborating in big-ish teams.
15.35-15.55	Yosra Zoubar The human dimension in protected area management: hikers' values and behavioral intentions towards vulnerable wildlife.
15.55-16.50	Poster Session & Coffee Break
16.50-17.30	Auditorium G Pro-Environmental Behaviour	Auditorium F Transport
16.50-17.10	Lisa Andersson Individualist and collectivist cultural influences on environmental concern and pro-environmental behaviour.	Richard Jedon The importance of pedestrians' arousal type for urban lighting design.
17.10-17.30	Ragnheiður "Heather" Torfadóttir, Stepan Vesely When does the drop become the ocean? Moderators and mediators of pro-environmental behavioural spillover.	Aslak Fyhri Using eye trackers to study cyclists' in real life traffic situation.
17.30-18.10	Auditorium G Pro-environmental Behaviour	Auditorium F Climate Change & Emotion

17.30-17.50	Jan Urban Pro-environmental behavior triggers moral inference, not licensing by observers.	Thea Gregersen “Emotional” research communication.
17.50-18.10	Hulda Karlsson The role of mental imagery and feedback in bridging the gap between climate change awareness and impactful climate action.
19.00-21.30	Social Mingling & Dinner in Drotten
21.30	Social Gathering - Toppen bar

Program CEP 2022

Friday 18th of November

08.30- 09.00	Morning Coffee, Social Mingling & Registration
09.00- 10.15	Auditorium G Climate
09.00- 09.35	Keynote – Rouven Doran Climate change perceptions: reflections on the role of scientific information.
09.35- 09.55	Svein Åge Kjøs Johnsen and Marte Sofie Røsjø Skaare When do people say we have to begin if we want to reach the climate goals?
09.55- 10.15	Markus Høstaker Nordheim The Effects of Probability and Delay on Discounting of Climate Outcomes.
10.20- 11.00	Auditorium G Panel debate - Christian Andres Palacios Haugestad Psychology for Climate at UiO: Local initiative for applying psychological knowledge to address the ecological crisis at the educational, research and institutional footprint levels.
11.00- 12.00	Lunch Break – Drotten
12.00- 13.15	Auditorium G Restitution
12.00- 12.35	Keynote- Leif W. Rydstedt Towards an Integration of Recovery and Restoration Theories.

12.35-12.55	Carolien Konijnenberg Winter wonderland: The effects of a snowy winter nature walk on subjective stress and salivary cortisol levels.
12.55-13.15	Femke Beute Light and Restorative Environments: Implications for Theory and Research Strategies.
13.15-13.35	Break
13.35-14.55	Auditorium G Health & Nature	Auditorium F Virtual environment
13.35-13.55	Åshild Lappegard Hauge The influence of natural environment in child therapy – analytic generalization of a qualitative case study.	Tadhg E. MacIntyre Virtual Laboratories to Test Configurations of Nature and Greenspace: A Protocol for a Novel Application of Virtual Nature.
13.55-14.15	Cassandra Murphy A rapid review on improving college students’ mental health and well-being through Nature-Based Interventions.	Hans-Rüdiger Pfister Climate Change Discourse on the Web: Which Topics are Discussed Where?
14.15-14.35	Erinn C. Cameron Adverse Impact of Climate Change on Maternal and Child Health Across Countries.	Gisela Böhm Who, what, and to which effect: Three facets of e-privacy risk perceptions.
14.35-14.55	Jill Tove Buseth, Berit Arnesveen Bronken and Monica Rønning, From lock-down to “lock up”: lecturers’ perspectives on “best practice” teaching methods following Covid-19 lock-downs.	Yasushi Suko Listening to natural sounds may be more relaxing than sitting in silence and surfing the Internet: A seven-day online field experiment.
14.55-15.00	End of Conference - Social Mingling	